

MOUNTAIN BIKE LOOP TRAIL

This trail is beginner to intermediate difficulty with optional, skill-building features.

The loop is designed so that less experienced riders can practice skills development in a secluded, approachable area.

If this is your first time here, ride the trail in the clockwise direction. Once you've mastered that, try it in the counter-clockwise direction for an entirely new experience! Dismount and yield for less experienced riders.

JUMP LINES

This area is for intermediate to expert riders.

These dirt jumps are designed for confident mountain bikers looking to improve their jumping skills. They can be ridden on either full-suspension or hard-tail bikes.

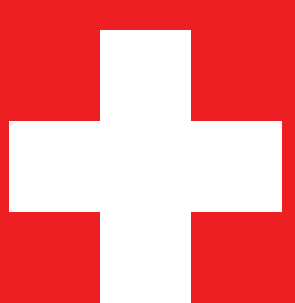

There are two lines: the progressive line, which starts with easier jumps that become more difficult as you go, and the expert line, with challenging jumps for riders who have mastered the progressive line.

Always walk the features before attempting them; even on familiar trails, features can change.
